4.8 Quoting Error. If a quoting error occurs due to a typographical error made by the Company or there is an obvious mistake in an exchange rate quote provided by the Company to the Client in relation to a Request made by telephone or facsimile or letter or email (the Quoting Error), the Company shall not be liable for any damages, claims, losses, liabilities or costs arising from the Quoting Error. 5.2 Unauthorised Payment Transactions. The Client expressly agrees that any unauthorised or incorrectly executed payment transaction (and any claim for damages or losses of any kind whatsoever arising hereunder) must be notified by emailing the Company at client.support@westernunion.com or telephoning the Company on 0800 096 0172 (or +44 207 539 6960 if calling from outside the UK) as soon as the Client is aware of such unauthorised or incorrectly executed payment transaction or claim and in any case within two months of the circumstances that allegedly caused the incident giving rise to the unauthorised or incorrectly executed payment transaction or claim.

- (b) if the payment is to be delivered in any EEA currency other than euro or sterling but in the EEA, the payment will be delivered to the account of the Beneficiary's payment service provider by no later than the end of the fourth Business Day following the time of receipt by the Company of the Payment Instruction; and
- (c) Payment transactions to be delivered outside of the EEA or in any non-EEA currency and payments to be delivered by draft, shall be processed and delivered by the Company in accordance with the Company's standard processing times. 5.5 Auto-Convert Service. The Company shall use its reasonable endeavours to provide the Services in accordance with Client's Payment Instructions. However, in the event Client provides a Payment Instruction to the Company for the initiation of a payment in a particular currency (the Instruction Currency) that is different from the currency in which the Payee's payment account is kept and maintained (the Payee Currency), Client hereby authorises and instructs the Company to initiate the payment in the Payee Currency and agrees that the Company shall convert the Instruction Currency into the Payee Currency by applying an exchange rate of 2% above the interbank market rate prevailing at the time the transaction is processed or if the interbank market rate is not used, such other rate, which is applied to the payment by the Company's counterparty bank (an Automatic Currency Conversion). Client hereby acknowledges and accepts that this may result in two consecutive currency conversions. Details of the interbank market rate are publicly available online on the trading platforms of the Electronic Broking Services and Thomson Reuters and upon request the Company shall confirm to the Client the current interbank market rate.

The Client is aware that in cases where the Company executes an Automatic Currency Conversion, the Confirmation provided by the Company to the Client will not state the foreign exchange rate applied to the Automatic Currency Conversion, because at the time the Confirmation is issued, the Company will not be able to predict whether or not an Automatic Currency Conversion will be necessary. It is understood that once the Company has become aware of the foreign exchange rate to be applied to an Automatic Currency Conversion, the Company shall be under no obligation to inform the Client about such foreign exchange rate, unless the Client requests such information.

The Company may, in its sole discretion, attempt to contact the third party sender to secure any additional information that may be needed to ensure accurate processing of the Incoming Payment.
