

How We Handle Your Complaint

We want all customers to be happy with the service we offer, but always welcome feedback if that is not the case. If you do have cause to complain, we will do everything we can to resolve matters quickly and to our mutual satisfaction.

Making a Complaint

As a first step, you should contact your Relationship Manager who will try to resolve any concerns you may have, as quickly as possible. Alternatively, you can contact us in one of the following ways: -

By Telephone: 0800 096 0172 (or +44 207 539 6960 if calling from outside the UK)

By Email: client.support@westernunion.com

By Post: Client Support Team

Our Complaints Procedure

We will always endeavour to resolve your concerns by the close of the third business day following the complaint. If this has not been possible, we will send you a written acknowledgement within five business days. This will set out our understanding of the issues you have raised and will contain the name and contact details of the person who will be dealing with your complaint.

We will resolve most complaints within fifteen working days. If we are unable to do so, we will contact you again, to keep you informed of our progress and indicate when we will issue the final response.

As soon as we have established all the facts and completed our investigation, we will provide you with a formal written response which will set out our findings and explain our final position. This response will be issued by e-mail, in PDF format. A postal copy can be supplied on request.

If you are not satisfied with the outcome of our investigation you may refer your complaint to your local governmental office Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) scheme.

In the UK, the applicable out-of-court body is the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS). Our final response will therefore also include, where relevant, details of your right to contact The Financial Ombudsman Service, which you can utilise, should you remain dissatisfied with our investigation or the outcome of your complaint.

If after 35 days your complaint is still unresolved, you will be entitled to refer your complaint, free of charge and subject to eligibility, to the Financial Ombudsman Service.

If you decide to ask The Financial Ombudsman Service to review your complaint, you must do so within six months of the date of our final response letter. If you do not refer your complaint in time, the Ombudsman will not have our permission to consider your complaint and so will only be able to do so in very limited circumstances. For example, if the Ombudsman believes that the delay was as a result of exceptional circumstances.
