Our website provides additional information that may be useful including information about foreign exchange transactions and payment solutions, a resource centre and information relating to our company history. You must note that any information in this PDS or on our website does not take into account your personal financial circumstances and needs.

4. FOREIGN EXCHANGE OVERVIEW

Foreign exchange refers to the purchase of one currency and the sale of another currency at an agreed Exchange Rate simultaneously. Separate from the Exchange Rate, you will need to consider the relevant fees associated with your transaction. Our fees for Vanilla Options are described in Section 5.8 "Cost of a Vanilla Option" of this PDS.

4.1 The Foreign Exchange Market

Vanilla Options are not entered into on an authorised exchange such as a stock market. There is no official benchmark Exchange Rate for Vanilla Options. The foreign exchange market is referred to as an Over-The-Counter (OTC) market, which means that Exchange Rates when compared between providers will often vary.

Exchange Rates are quoted on the Interbank Market, which is a wholesale market for Authorised Dealers, with Interbank Exchange Rates fluctuating according to supply and demand. This market is restricted to Authorised Dealers and banks that constantly quote to each other at wholesale Exchange Rates and in minimum parcel sizes.

Factors that influence supply and demand (and therefore the Exchange Rate quoted to you) include:

- investment inflows/outflows;
- market sentiment or expectations;
- economic and political influences including geo-political influence; and
- import/export of goods and services.

Exchange Rates quoted in the media generally refer to Interbank Exchange Rates and will usually differ from Exchange Rates quoted to you.

Because Vanilla Options are traded OTC with WUBS you will not be able to sell or transfer your transaction with another provider. You will only be able to reverse or cancel your Vanilla Option with WUBS.

4.2 Currency Limitations

While WUBS endeavours to ensure that you are provided with access to the Currency Pair of your choice, WUBS does not guarantee that it will offer Vanilla Options in all Currency Pairs. This may arise for a number of reasons including restrictions that are imposed on WUBS or WUBS not having access to certain currencies through its Correspondent Banks.

5. VANILLA OPTIONS

5.1 What is a Vanilla Option?

A Vanilla Option is an agreement between two parties (in this case, with WUBS as "the buyer" of the Vanilla Option and you as the "the seller" of the Vanilla Option) that gives the buyer the right but not the obligation to exchange an amount of one currency for an amount of another currency at an agreed Exchange Rate on an agreed date in the future (Expiry Date). A Vanilla Option may be a Put Option (a right to sell currency) or a Call Option (a right to buy currency).

When you sell a Vanilla Option to WUBS, you will receive a Premium for the Vanilla Option. By selling a Vanilla Option to WUBS, you grant WUBS as the buyer, the right, but not the obligation, to buy from you an agreed amount of one currency for another currency at an agreed price (the Strike Rate) on the specified Expiry Date.

The costs of selling a Vanilla Option to WUBS are described further in Section 5.8 "Cost of a Vanilla Option". The benefits and risks of selling a Vanilla Option to WUBS are described further in Section 5.9 "Benefits of Vanilla Options" and Section 5.10 "Risks of Vanilla Options".

5.2 Vanilla Option Variables

When you sell a Vanilla Option to WUBS you nominate:

- whether it is a Call Option or a Put Option,
- the Currency Pair;
- the Notional Amount;
- the Strike Rate;
- any Trigger Rates;
- any Windows; and
- the Expiry Date.

The Vanilla Option type, Currency Pair, Notional Amount, Strike Rate, Trigger Rates, Windows and Expiry Date in your Vanilla Option must be acceptable to WUBS.

WUBS only offers “European” style Vanilla Options. This means that WUBS may only Exercise the Vanilla Option on the Expiry Date, unless otherwise agreed by WUBS in writing.

5.3 Vanilla Option at Expiry

At the Expiry Date of a Vanilla Option the prevailing Spot Rate that applies to the Currency Pair will either be less favourable than the Strike Rate or more favourable than the Strike Rate.

(a) If the Spot Rate is less favourable to WUBS than the Strike Rate

If you have sold a Vanilla Option to us, WUBS will Exercise its Vanilla Option and you will be obligated to exchange currencies with WUBS at the Strike Rate, which will be unfavourable to you, two (2) Business Days after the Expiry Date.

(b) If the Spot Rate is more favourable to WUBS than the Strike Rate

If you have sold a Vanilla Option to us, WUBS will let the Vanilla Option lapse and there is no obligation on either party. This is because the prevailing Spot Rate for the Currency Pair is a more favourable Exchange Rate than the Strike Rate.

5.4 Exercising a Vanilla Option

To Exercise a Vanilla Option, WUBS may inform you of its intention to Exercise on the Expiry Date by issuing you with an Exercise Notice by phone or electronic mail (email):

- As the seller, you will be obligated and must accept the Exercise Notice.
- You will be required to deliver your currency to WUBS at the Strike Rate two (2) Business Days after the Expiry Date.

If the Vanilla Option sold by you to WUBS is In-The-Money (ITM) (i.e. the prevailing Exchange Rate is less favourable than the Strike Rate), we will Exercise the option even without providing an Exercise Notice to you.

If a Vanilla Option is not Exercised it will lapse at the Expiry Time.

5.5 Terminating/Closing a Vanilla Option

You may ask us to close a Vanilla Option at any time up to the Expiry Time on the Expiry Date. WUBS will provide you with a quote for the cost of such cancellation. These costs may be significant. WUBS's quote will be based on the cost of reversing or offsetting your Vanilla Option at the time of your request. The same variables that are relevant to the determination of the Premium will be relevant to determining this cost. These are set out in Section 5.8 “Cost of a Vanilla Option” below.

If you accept the quote the Vanilla Option will be terminated and you may lose money as a result.

5.6 Examples of a Vanilla Option

The examples used for each Vanilla Option in this Section 5.6 are for illustrative purposes only, using rates and figures that we have selected to demonstrate how each product works. They do not reflect the specific circumstances that may arise under Vanilla Options entered into by you. In order to assess the merits of any particular Vanilla Option you should use the actual rates and figures quoted at the relevant time.

5.6.1 If you sell a Vanilla USD Put Option / SGD Call Option

A Singaporean importer needs to pay USD 100,000 in three (3) months' time for goods it has bought overseas. The importer can buy the USD in three (3) months' time but cannot budget the right amount of SGD because the Exchange Rate in three (3) months' time is unknown. The current Spot Rate is 1.3600.

If the importer did nothing, the amount of SGD needed to pay for the USD 100,000 in three (3) months' time will depend on the prevailing Exchange Rate at that time.

If the USD/SGD Exchange Rate goes down (SGD appreciates), less SGD will be required when it comes time to pay for the USD and the importer may be in a more favourable position.

If the USD/SGD Exchange Rate goes up (SGD depreciates), more SGD will be required when it comes time to pay for the USD and the importer may be in a less favourable position.

The importer sells a USD Put Option to WUBS with the following terms (nominating the Strike Rate, Notional Amount and Expiry Date):

- Currency Pair: USD/SGD
- Option type: USD Put Option / SGD Call Option
- Strike Rate: 1.3600
- Notional Amount: USD 100,000
- Expiry Date: Three (3) months after Trade Date
- Expiry Time: 3.00 PM Tokyo time
- Settlement date: Typically, the prevailing market convention is two (2) Business Days after the Expiry Date
- Premium: SGD 1,100 (calculated by WUBS, payable to the importer).

Possible outcomes on the Expiry Date

On the Expiry Date, WUBS will have the option to exchange USD for SGD at the agreed Strike Rate:

- a) If the prevailing Spot Rate is more favourable to WUBS than 1.3600 (say 1.4000), WUBS would allow the USD Put Option to lapse with no obligation on the importer.
- b) If the prevailing Spot Rate is less favourable to WUBS than 1.3600 (say 1.3300), WUBS will Exercise the USD Put Option and the importer will be obligated to exchange SGD for USD at the less favourable Strike Rate of 1.3600.

5.6.2 If you sell a Vanilla USD Call Option / SGD Put Option

A Singaporean exporter will receive USD 100,000 in three (3) months' time for goods it has sold overseas. The exporter can sell the USD in three (3) months' time but does not know the amount of SGD it will receive because the Exchange Rate in three (3) months' time is unknown. The current Spot Rate is 1.3600.

If the exporter did nothing, the amount of SGD received for the USD 100,000 in three (3) months' time will depend on the prevailing Exchange Rate at the time.

If the USD/SGD Exchange Rate goes down (the SGD appreciates), less SGD will be received when it comes time to sell the USD and the exporter may be in a less favourable position.

If the USD/SGD Exchange Rate goes up (the SGD depreciates), more SGD will be received when it comes time to sell the USD and the exporter may be in a more favourable position.

The exporter sells a USD Call Option to WUBS with the following terms (nominating the Strike Rate, Notional Amount and Expiry Date):

- Currency Pair: USD/SGD
- Option type: USD Call Option / SGD Put Option
- Strike Rate: 1.3600
- Notional Amount: USD 100,000
- Expiry Date: three (3) months after Trade Date
- Expiry Time: 3.00 PM Tokyo time
- Settlement date: Typically, the prevailing market convention is two (2) Business Days after the Expiry Date
- Premium: SGD 900 (calculated by WUBS, payable to the exporter).

Possible outcomes on the Expiry Date

On the Expiry Date, WUBS will have the option to exchange SGD for USD at the agreed Strike Rate:

- a) If the prevailing Spot Rate is less favourable to WUBS than 1.3600 (say 1.3900), WUBS will Exercise the USD Call Option and the exporter will be obligated to exchange USD for SGD at the less favourable Strike Rate of 1.3600.
- b) If the prevailing Spot Rate is more favourable to WUBS than 1.3600 (say 1.3300), WUBS would allow the USD Call Option to lapse with no obligation on the exporter.

5.7 Additional triggers if you sell a Vanilla Option

If you sell a Vanilla Option to WUBS, you can have certain conditions attached to the Vanilla Option that are triggered if an agreed Exchange Rate trades in the spot foreign exchange market during the term of the Vanilla Option. We refer to these as Trigger Rates. A Trigger Rate may be either a Knock-In Rate or a Knock-Out Rate:

- A Knock-In Rate: is an Exchange Rate that must be traded (at or beyond) in the spot foreign exchange market that will result in WUBS's right pursuant to a Call Option or a Put Option to become effective (i.e. the Call Option or Put Option is contingent on the Knock-In Rate being triggered).
- A Knock-Out Rate is an Exchange Rate that if traded (at or beyond) in the spot foreign exchange market that will result in WUBS's right pursuant to a Call Option or Put Option terminating (i.e. the Call Option or Put Option terminates if the Knock-Out Rate is triggered).

Where a Trigger Rate applies to a Vanilla Option it will apply for the term. However, it is possible to apply a shorter term to the Trigger Rate. We refer to these shorter terms as Windows. Typical trigger Windows include "last month" (where the Trigger Rate is only effective in the last month of the Vanilla Option), "last week" (where the Trigger Rate is only effective in the last week of the Vanilla Option), "last day" (where the Trigger Rate is only effective on the last day of the Vanilla Option), and "at Expiry" (where the Trigger Rate is only effective at the Expiry Time on the Expiry Date of the Vanilla Option).

You can ask WUBS to provide you with a Window at any time before you enter into a Vanilla Option. If a Window is nominated on the Trade Date, Trigger Rates will only apply during the period that the Window is open.

The addition of a Knock-In Rate or a Knock-Out Rate to a Vanilla Option results in the Premium to be reduced relative to a comparable Vanilla Option without a trigger. However, the Vanilla Option may not exist on the Expiry Date because a Trigger Rate has been triggered or not triggered.

5.7.1 If you sell a Vanilla USD Put Option / SGD Call Option with a Knock-In Rate

The same Singaporean importer in paragraph 5.6.1 wishes to include a Knock-In Rate at 1.3900.

- Currency Pair: USD/SGD
- Option type: USD Put Option / SGD Call Option
- Strike Rate: 1.3600
- Knock-In Rate: 1.3900
- Notional Amount: USD 100,000
- Expiry Date: three (3) months after Trade Date
- Expiry Time: 3.00 PM Tokyo time
- Settlement date: Typically, the prevailing market convention is two (2) Business Days after the Expiry Date
- Premium: SGD 250 (calculated by WUBS, payable to the importer)

Possible outcomes

- If the Knock-In Rate (1.3900) has not been triggered prior to the Expiry Date (or during a Window), the USD Put Option lapses with no obligation on either party.
- If the Knock-In Rate (1.3900) has been triggered prior to the Expiry Date (or during a Window):
 - If the prevailing Spot Rate is more favourable to WUBS than 1.3600 (say 1.4000), WUBS would allow the USD Put Option to lapse with no obligation on the importer.
 - If the prevailing Spot Rate is less favourable to WUBS than 1.3600 (say, 1.3300), WUBS will Exercise the USD Put Option and the importer will be obligated to exchange SGD for USD at the less favourable Strike Rate of 1.3600.

5.7.2 If you sell a Vanilla USD Put Option / SGD Call Option with a Knock-Out Rate

The same Singaporean importer in paragraph 5.6.1 wishes to include a Knock-Out Rate at 1.3400.

- Currency Pair: USD/SGD
- Option type: USD Put Option / SGD Call Option
- Strike Rate: 1.3600
- Knock-Out Rate: 1.3400
- Notional Amount: USD 100,000
- Expiry Date: three (3) months after Trade Date
- Expiry Time: 3.00 PM Tokyo time
- Settlement date: Typically, the prevailing market convention is two (2) Business Days after the Expiry Date
- Premium: SGD 200 (calculated by WUBS, payable to the importer)

Possible outcomes

- If the Knock-Out Rate (1.3400) has not been triggered prior to the Expiry Date (or during a Window):
 - If the prevailing Spot Rate is more favourable to WUBS than 1.3600 (say, 1.4000), WUBS would allow the USD Put Option to lapse with no obligation on the importer.
 - If the prevailing Spot Rate is less favourable to WUBS than 1.3600 (say, 1.3450), WUBS will Exercise the USD Put Option and the importer will be obligated to exchange SGD for USD at the less favourable Strike Rate of 1.3600.

- b) If the Knock-Out Rate (1.3400) has been triggered, the USD Put Option will cease to exist.

5.7.3 If you sell a Vanilla USD Call Option / SGD Put Option with a Knock-In Rate

The same Singaporean exporter in paragraph 5.6.2 wishes to include a Knock-In Rate at 1.3400:

- Currency Pair: USD/SGD
- Option type: USD Call Option / SGD Put Option
- Strike Rate: 1.3600
- Knock-In Rate: 1.3400
- Notional Amount: USD 100,000
- Expiry Date: three (3) months after Trade Date
- Expiry Time: 3.00 PM Tokyo time
- Settlement date: Typically, the prevailing market convention is two (2) Business Days after the Expiry Date
- Premium: SGD 250 (calculated by WUBS, payable to the exporter)

Possible outcomes

- a) If the Knock-In Rate (1.3400) has not been triggered prior to the Expiry Date (or during a Window), the USD Call Option lapses with no obligation on either party.
- b) If the Knock-In Rate (1.3400) has been triggered prior to the Expiry Date (or during a Window):
- (i) If the prevailing Spot Rate is more favourable than 1.3600 (say 1.4000), WUBS will Exercise the USD Call Option and the exporter will be obligated to exchange USD for SGD at the less favourable Strike Rate of 1.3600.
 - (ii) If the prevailing Spot Rate is less favourable than 1.3600 (say, 1.3450), WUBS would allow the USD Call Option to lapse with no obligation on the exporter.

5.7.4 If you sell a Vanilla USD Call Option / SGD Put Option with a Knock-Out Rate

The same Singaporean exporter in paragraph 5.6.2 wishes to include a Knock-Out Rate at 1.3900:

- Currency Pair: USD/SGD
- Option type: USD Call Option / SGD Put Option
- Strike Rate: 1.3600
- Knock-Out Rate: 1.3900
- Notional Amount: USD 100,000
- Expiry Date: three (3) months after Trade Date
- Expiry Time: 3.00 PM Tokyo time
- Settlement date: Typically, the prevailing market convention is two (2) Business Days after the Expiry Date
- Premium: SGD 300 (calculated by WUBS, payable to the exporter)

Possible outcomes

- a) If the Knock-Out Rate (1.3900) has not been triggered prior to the Expiry Date (or during a Window):
- (i) If the prevailing Spot Rate is less favourable to WUBS than 1.3600 (say, 1.3800), WUBS will Exercise the USD Call Option and the exporter will be obligated to exchange USD for SGD at the less favourable Strike Rate of 1.3600.
 - (ii) If the prevailing Spot Rate is more favourable to WUBS than 1.3600 (say, 1.3200), WUBS would allow the USD Call Option to lapse with no obligation on the exporter.
- b) If the Knock-Out Rate (1.3900) has been triggered the USD Call Option will cease to exist.

5.8 Cost of a Vanilla Option

5.8.1 Premium

When you sell a Vanilla Option to WUBS, you will be receiving from WUBS a non-refundable Premium, in cleared funds, payable within two (2) Business Days of the Trade Date. WUBS will pay the Premium in either Singaporean Dollars or one of the currencies in the Vanilla Option Currency Pair. However, it is important to understand that if you sell a Vanilla Option to WUBS, your loss may be potentially unknown as the Premium received by you may not offset the impact of an unfavourable Spot Rate move.

WUBS sets the Premium in respect of a Vanilla Option, by applying a Retail Mark Up (Mark Up) to the Interbank Premium it receives from its wholesale commercial relationships. When calculating Premiums, WUBS takes into account the following variables on a transaction-by-transaction basis:

- the Currency Pair;
- the Notional Amount;
- the Strike Rate: the more favourable the Strike Rate for WUBS, the higher the Premium that will be payable;

- the Expiry Date: the longer the time period between the Trade Date and Expiry Date the higher the Premium that will be payable;
- current market Exchange Rates of the underlying Currency Pair;
- the Interest Rate Differential of the countries whose currencies make up the Currency Pair;
- market Volatility and Liquidity;
- any Trigger Rates and Windows.

5.8.2 Transaction Fees

You will not be charged any additional entry fees for selling a Vanilla Option at the Trade Date but other fees or charges may apply for related services such as Wire Transfers or Drafts that are made or issued in connection with the Vanilla Option.

Transaction fees for Wire Transfers or Drafts are in addition and are separate to the Exchange Rate conversion that will apply to converting one foreign currency to another when WUBS Exercises a Vanilla Option. These fees are payable at the time we process a Wire Transfer for you or issue you or your nominated beneficiary with a Draft.

The transaction fee we charge you will depend upon:

- The amount and type of foreign currency to be transferred (more exotic currencies usually incur higher fees);
- The number and frequency of transactions you conduct through WUBS (an existing relationship may result in reduced fees); and
- The country that the funds are sent to (some countries are more expensive than others to deal with).

In addition to the fees charged by WUBS for sending payments by Wire Transfer or for issuing Drafts for Vanilla Options, any Correspondent Bank, Intermediary Bank or Beneficiary Bank(s) which facilitates the sending or payment of Wire Transfers/Drafts may impose their own additional fees or charges which may be deducted from the amount paid to you or your beneficiary. For information on these fees you need to contact the relevant financial institution.

For more information in relation to the cost of Wire Transfers/Drafts in connection with delivery of your Vanilla Option that may be applicable, contact your WUBS Representative.

5.9 Benefits of Vanilla Options

If you sell a Vanilla Option to WUBS, some benefits include:

- The Premium is paid to you upfront.
- The Premium to be received is known at the time the Vanilla Option is entered into.
- The Premium received can be used to offset a potentially unfavourable move in Exchange Rates over the term of the Vanilla Option contract.
- Vanilla Options are flexible, where the Strike Rate, Trigger Rates, Expiry Date and Notional Amount can be tailored to your needs.

5.10 Risks of Vanilla Options

If you sell a Vanilla Option to WUBS, the associated risks include:

- Market Volatility: The foreign exchange markets in which WUBS operates are OTC and can change rapidly. These markets are speculative and volatile with the risk that prices will move quickly. WUBS cannot guarantee that you will not make losses, (where your Vanilla Option is Out-of-The-Money (OTM)) or that any unrealised profit or losses will remain unchanged for the term of the Vanilla Option. You need to monitor your Vanilla Options with WUBS carefully.
- There may be no protection: The sale of a Vanilla Option to WUBS is not designed to provide protection against an unfavourable movement in the relevant currency. If the Spot Rate at expiry is more favourable to WUBS than the Strike Rate, WUBS will Exercise the Vanilla Option and you will be obligated to exchange currencies at an Exchange Rate that is unfavourable to you. The Premium received by you is designed to be used to potentially offset any potential unfavourable moves in the Spot Rate that may occur. However, the Premium received may not be enough to offset the total impact of the unfavourable Spot Rate at the Expiry Date.
- Delivery of currency: If WUBS exercises the Vanilla Option, you are obligated to deliver your currency to WUBS at the Strike Rate, which will be at an Exchange Rate that is unfavourable to you. Furthermore, if WUBS exercises the Vanilla Option and you do not have the currency you are required to deliver, you will need to purchase it at the Spot Rate, which will be an unfavourable Exchange Rate, in order to meet your obligations.
- Unknown liability: If you have to purchase currency at an unfavourable Exchange Rate to meet your obligations this will result in a cost to you. This cost is potentially unknown.

- Cancellations: The close-out/cancellation of a Vanilla Option prior to maturity may result in a financial loss to you. WUBS will provide a quote for such services based on market conditions prevailing at the time of your request.
- Cooling-off: There is no cooling-off period. This means that once an Instruction to enter into a Vanilla Option has been accepted, you are unable to cancel the sale of your Vanilla Option without incurring a cost.
- Settlement: You are obliged to accept Exercise Notice from WUBS. This will occur when Exchange Rates are unfavourable to you relating to the Vanilla Option being Exercised. If you fail to do so WUBS may terminate the Vanilla Option and recover all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Vanilla Option. Similarly, if you fail to provide Settlement on the Value Date we may terminate your Vanilla Option. In such event, you will be liable for all costs and expenses that are incurred.

6. ORDERS, INSTRUCTIONS, CONFIRMATIONS AND TELEPHONE CONVERSATIONS

The commercial terms of a particular Vanilla Option will be agreed and binding from the time Instructions are received and accepted by us. This may occur verbally over the phone, electronically or in any other manner set out in our Terms and Conditions.

Shortly after selling a Vanilla Option to us, we may send you a Confirmation outlining the agreed commercial terms of the transaction. This Confirmation is intended to reflect the transaction that you have entered into with WUBS. It is important that you check the Confirmation to make sure that it accurately records the terms of the transaction. You should note however, that there is no cooling-off period with respect to Vanilla Options and that you will be bound once an Instruction has been accepted regardless of whether you receive, sign or acknowledge a Confirmation. In the event that there is a discrepancy between your understanding of the Vanilla Option and the Confirmation, it is important that you raise this with WUBS as a matter of urgency.

Conversations with our dealing room are recorded in accordance with standard market practice. We do this to ensure that we have complete records of the details of all transactions. Recorded conversations are retained for a limited time and are usually used when there is a dispute and for staff monitoring purposes. If you do not wish to be recorded you will need to inform your WUBS Representative. WUBS will not enter into any transaction over the telephone unless the conversation is recorded.

Further information about WUBS's privacy practices are set out at Section 10 "Privacy".
